

Iswaran on the casino review

MINISTER in the Prime Minister's Office, Mr S. Iswaran, said that the review of the Casino Control Act will help mitigate the risks posed by the casinos, while ensuring that the Integrated Resorts continue to deliver economic value to Singapore.

Mr Iswaran, who added that the review will anticipate issues that may crop up, was responding to questions from reporters on the sidelines of a community event yesterday.